

I do not support any further easing on ownership restrictions in the media. I live in a town dominated by Clear Channel affiliated radio stations and feel the overall quality and diversity has greatly suffered. Any further consolidation of media (including newspapers) ownership is in direct conflict with the ideal of a free and diverse press. I am strongly against any further consolidation and demand that the diversity of broadcast media be restored.